

Colorado Council for Learning Disabilities

Literacy Interventionist Tuition Scholarship

Eligibility: The $1,800.00 scholarship is open to state residents currently enrolled in teacher-preparation programs in an accredited college or university in Colorado. Applicants must have a plan of study or be working towards a degree or certification as a literacy interventionist. Applicants must complete at least one half of their program and have an overall-cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher and a cumulative GPA of 3.2 or higher in their literacy coursework.

Benefits: Recipients also receive a one-year membership to the Council for Learning Disabilities (CLD) and the Colorado Council for Learning Disabilities (CCLD). Award checks will be presented at the Math on the “Planes” Conference on February 23, 2019. Recipients will be featured in an article in the CCLD newsletter and will receive national recognition in LD Forum, the newsletter for the Council for Learning Disabilities.

Required Documents for Consideration:

- Most recent official, sealed college transcript (Students in a post-baccalaureate program must also include a sealed transcript of undergraduate study)
- Three letters of recommendation:
 - Two letters (letters included in the initial program application or letters that address the applicant’s status with his/her plan of study)
 - The third letter must be from a site supervisor and speak to the applicant’s ability to work with students with learning disabilities and colleagues.
- 500 Word Essay: “What Makes an Effective Teacher for Students with Learning Disabilities?”
- Autobiography (see Application Form for details)
